Faithful participate in national advocacy for immigrants

BY NATALIA DUROU

naduro@georgiabulletin.org

ATLANTA—With a call of solidarity, Catholics from across the Archdiocese of Atlanta came together to join a national movement advocating for immigrants during Nov. 22 and Nov. 23 events.

The initiative, "One Church, One Family: Catholic Public Witness for Immigrants," was coordinated by a coalition of Catholic organizations and parishes across the country to pray for limited communities across the country to pray for immigrants.

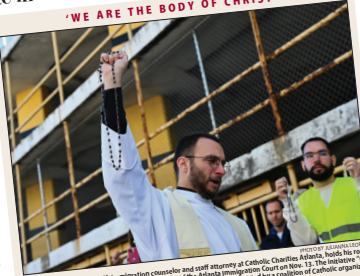

On Oct. 22, Holy Cross Church in Atlanta hosted a bilingual Mass that launched the archdiocese's participation in the movement. Father Michael Lamanna, St. Ignace's pastor and chairman of the Catholic Charities Atlanta, celebrated Mass for the Catholic Charities Atlanta congregation.

Father Lamanna reminded the congregation of the importance of sympathy and support for those who face injustice.

"We are the voice of the church, and of the people who don't have a voice," he said to the faithful.

The public witness continued Nov. 23 when nearly a hundred people gathered at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Atlanta for a procession and walking prayer vigil.

The day was part of a larger national effort that included vigils outside ICE detention centers and prayer services at sites connected to immigration enforcement. Additionally, it coincided with the Feast of St. Francis Xavier, Catholic patron saint of immigrants.

Father Michael Lamanna, St. Ignace's pastor and chairman of Catholic Charities Atlanta, leads his prayer vigil Nov. 23 while acting the prayer in front of the Atlanta Immigration Court on Nov. 23. The initiative "One Church, One Family: Catholic Public Witness for Immigrants," was coordinated by a coalition of Catholic organizations and parishes across the country to pray and advocate for immigrants.
